

RØDSMYRA PRIMARY SCHOOL

July 2013

Rødsmyra Primary School needed a mural for their staff room, and I created a colorful, abstract piece using acrylic paint on a brick wall. The vibrant composition brings a sense of optimism and energy to the space, offering teachers a refreshing and inspiring environment. The abstract forms invite personal interpretation, encouraging creativity and a positive atmosphere in the workplace.

