

KRÅKEBY KINDERGARDEN

July 2007

At Kråkeby Kindergarten, I transformed a concrete pillar with vibrant colors and whimsical creatures—fantastical animals that spark imagination. The playful design invites children to engage with the artwork, encouraging creativity and storytelling in their everyday environment. The bright colors and imaginative forms aim to bring joy and wonder to the space.

